

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SALE

1. DEFINITIONS

In these conditions the "Company" means OroliaLtd and "the Purchaser" means any company firm or Individual from whom the Company receives an order.

2. APPLICABILITY OF CONDITIONS

The Company accepts orders subject only to these conditions. The Purchaser accepts that these conditions shall govern relations between it and the Company to the exclusion of any other terms including without limitation conditions or warranties (written or oral express or implied) even if contained in any of the Purchaser's documents which purport to provide that the Purchaser's own terms shall prevail. No variation or qualification of these conditions or of any quotation or order arising there from shall be valid unless agreed in writing by the company secretary or a director of the Company.

3. QUOTATION AND ACCEPTANCE

Quotations are valid for thirty days unless otherwise stated in writing, and do not constitute an offer by the Company, furthermore, no order shall result in a binding contract until accepted by the Company. That order must contain sufficient information for the Company to proceed and no contract shall exist until confirmation in writing of acceptance is given by a duly authorised officer of the Company. Unless otherwise stated in writing by the Company, each order, when accepted, constitutes a separate contract.

4. PRICES AND PRICE VARIATION

4.1 Prices quoted are exclusive of Value Added Tax. Unless otherwise stated in writing, the Company reserves the right to vary the prices of its goods and services prior to acceptance of an order, or between the date of acceptance of an order and the actual date of delivery (including, but not by way of limitation, price variations related to changes in exchange rates, transport costs, or taxes, or where an increase in cost is due to any act or default of the Purchaser, including the cancellation by the Purchaser of part or any order).

4.2 Unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing, prices quoted are ex-works (as defined in INCOTERMS 2000 Edition) insurance, carriage, postage and freight will be charged as extras.

4.3 The Company reserves the right to apply a minimum charge in respect of any order.

5. DELIVERY OF GOODS AND PERFORMANCE OF SERVICES

5.1 Any delivery period, or delivery date quoted is an estimate only and commences from the Company's written acceptance of the Purchaser's order. Such estimated delivery period shall not involve the Company in any liability to the Purchaser in respect of loss suffered as a result of failure to deliver or complete the contract within such period of time and no delay shall entitle the Purchaser to cancel the order or refuse to accept delivery at any time. The Company reserves the right to deliver in more than one consignment and to invoice each consignment separately and in such circumstances payment in respect of consignments delivered will be due even if the whole contract has not yet been fulfilled. The Company also reserves the right to withhold delivery of later consignments in respect of earlier consignments which are due and have not been made.

5.2 The Company shall be entitled (without prejudice to any of its other rights) to claim from the Purchaser any loss or additional cost arising from any delay by the Purchaser in:

5.2.1 Accepting delivery of the goods or services; or

5.2.2 Furnishing any further information required to enable the Company to complete and deliver the goods or services.

5.3 Without prejudice to the generality of clause 5.1 where an estimated delivery date or delivery Period is quoted, and that delivery date or delivery period is dependent on the issue to the Purchaser by the Department of Trade and Industry of an operating licence, the Company shall be under no liability whatsoever to deliver the goods or perform the service by the estimated delivery date or to within the contracted delivery period.

5.4 Subject to clause (5.5) below, unless otherwise agreed in writing all references to delivery shall mean delivery within the United Kingdom, to the destination specifically agreed between the parties, the method of transport to be decided at the sole discretion of the Company.

5.5 In the event that the Purchaser shall transport or arrange transport the goods shall be deemed to have been delivered when the Company shall have appropriated them in the Company premises to the relevant order and shall have notified the Purchaser that those goods are ready for collection. The goods shall be and thereafter remain at the Purchasers risk. The Company shall take all reasonable skill and care in the Performance of its services but no other standard or skill or care shall be expressed or implied by law or otherwise.

5.6 If the Purchaser fails to give the Company delivery instructions promptly when required, payment in full shall be due forthwith and the Company shall be entitled (but not bound) to store the goods at the Purchaser's expense, but without liability for loss or damage securing after the due delivery date (unless caused by Company negligence). So long as the Company's storage facilities permit the Company may store the goods at the Purchaser's risk and the Purchaser shall pay a charge therefore to be determined by the Company.

6. PAYMENT

6.1 Payment shall be due in full immediately in respect of advance or progress claims rendered in accordance with an agreed scheme of phased payment, and, in respect of the invoiced value of goods supplied and services rendered within thirty days from the date of the Company's invoice. Payment shall not be withheld on account of any claim of the Purchaser against the Company, nor on account of a delay in bringing the goods into use resulting from the failure to receive an operating licence, or any other cause whatsoever. Payment by the Purchaser is due in full in accordance with these provisions in respect of goods held on its behalf whether or not arising from the Purchaser's failure to give instructions in respect of delivery.

6.2 Should the Purchaser fail to pay any invoice in full by the due date the Company reserves the right to charge interest on a daily basis on the amount outstanding at the rate of 2% per month above the base rate for the time being of the National Westminster Bank plc or the Late Payment of Commercial Debts (Interest) Act 1998 whichever is the greater and to recover all costs involved in collection of the overdue sums.

6.3 The Company reserves the right to suspend delivery or withdraw credit terms where payment of any invoice due to the Company, is not received in accordance with the payment terms stipulated herein, or otherwise agreed with the Purchaser.

6.4 The Company shall be entitled to sue for the price of the goods regardless of whether property in them has passed.

7. RETENTION OF TITLE

7.1 Legal and beneficial ownership of the goods shall remain with the Company until such time as the Company has received payment in full for all goods supplied to the Purchaser or until such time as the goods are sold to the Purchaser's customers by way of bona fide sale the full market value (whichever shall be the earlier) and until such time the Purchaser shall keep such goods separate from its property and clearly identified as the property of the Company.

7.2 Notwithstanding terms of payment specified herein or elsewhere payment for all goods supplied to the Purchaser shall become due immediately upon the commencement of any act or proceeding in which the Purchaser's solvency is involved (whether voluntary or upon application to any court) or upon appointment of a receiver over the whole or any part of the Purchaser's assets or undertaking and upon such occurrence the power of sale granted to the Purchaser above shall automatically determine.

7.3 If payment for any goods is overdue whether in whole or in part and any goods have been delivered to the Purchaser the Company may without prejudice to any of its other rights enter upon the Purchaser's premises to recover and/or resell the goods or such of them as the Company in its absolute discretion may designate as necessary to recover the amount of payment overdue and the Company's reasonable costs incurred in giving effect to its rights hereunder and for these purposes the Purchaser hereby irrevocably authorises the Company to enter and take all necessary and reasonable steps upon the premises or the Purchaser.

7.4 Until the Company is paid in full for all goods supplied the Purchaser is and shall remain a fiduciary for the Company in respect of the goods and if the Purchaser sells or allows to be sold the goods the proceeds of sale shall be held in a separate clearly identifiable account and the beneficial interest of the Company shall attach to the proceeds of sale and the Company shall have the right to trace such proceeds of sale.

7.5 If any of the goods are incorporated in or mixed with the Products of other third parties before full payment for all goods supplied under the contract has been made title in such mixed products shall vest in the Company and those other third Parties jointly until full payment has been made or such products have been sold and the proceeds of sale shall be applied firstly in meeting the expenses of the sale and secondly in satisfying the full invoice price of the goods owing to the Company and any third parties pro rata to the sums owed to those persons, with the balance (if any) being paid to the purchaser.

8. GUARANTEE OF QUALITY

8.1 If any defect in the materials from which the goods are made or fault in manufacture of the goods shall be found to exist and be reported to the Company in writing within a Period of twelve months from the date when the goods are ready for delivery at the Company's premises, (or such other period as is expressly agreed in writing by the Company) the Company will repair or at its option replace the defective part free of charge provided that it is returned to the Company's works (following full authorisation by the Company for each return) carriage paid and Provided also that this guarantee:

8.1.1 Shall not cover defects or faults in components not manufactured by the Company;
